

CM Showers Benefits on Employees

- Approval for the appointment of the 12th PRC
- Green signal for the release of two DAs
- Additional benefits for pensioners
- Key decisions made during a meeting with employee unions Amaravati, September 5: Chief Minister Nara Chandrababu Naidu emphasized that employees are an integral part of the government and reaffirmed the government's commitment to their welfare. During a meeting with leaders of employee unions, he discussed various critical issues concerning employees and pensioners and announced significant decisions. He assured them that the government would examine their issues sympathetically and provide all possible assistance. At the meeting, the Chief Minister approved the appointment of the 12th Pay Revision Commission (PRC). He also decided to release two Dearness Allowances (DAs) corresponding to July 1, 2024, and January 1, 2025, announcing that the payments for these DAs would come into effect on October 1, 2026. The government agreed to credit the long-awaited surrendered leave encashment for the year 2022 into employees' accounts by the upcoming Sankranti festival. Additionally, it was decided to provide payment for one extra surrendered leave to police personnel on the occasion of the Dasara festival. The Chief Minister also took key decisions regarding the welfare of pensioners, resolving to implement the 'additional quantum of pension' starting from January 2027. Pensioners over the age of 70 will receive an additional pension benefit of 10%, while those over 75 will receive 15%. The government has decided to implement the Employees' Health Scheme—which ensures healthcare coverage for employees—more effectively. Starting next month, measures will be taken to ensure that monthly payments are remitted to the NTR Vaidya Seva Trust within the same month. Officials stated that this move is likely to reduce delays in the delivery of healthcare services. These decisions regarding employees and pensioners will entail an additional annual financial burden of approximately ₹2,880 crore on the state government.

YSRCP Preparatory Meeting for Local Body Elections

- District-level meeting held in Ongole
- Leaders provide direction to party cadres
- Call for coordinated effort in the elections

Ongole, September 5: A district-level preparatory meeting for the YSRCP was held at the party office in Ongole, Prakasam district, with an eye on the upcoming local body elections. Key leaders participated in the meeting, including Legislative Council Deputy Chairman Thumati Madhava Rao, Darsi MLA and Prakasam District YSRCP President Dr. Buchepalli Siva Prasada Reddy, and Zilla Parishad Chairperson Buchepalli Venkayamma. The meeting featured extensive discussions on strategies to ensure the party's victory in the local elections and on programs to be implemented at the grassroots level. Leaders advised strengthening the party organization at the village and mandal levels and enhancing coordination with party workers.

Leaders called for taking the party's ideology more effectively to the public and highlighting the government's failures. They emphasized the need to maintain continuous contact with the people while focusing on local issues. Noting that booth-level committees play a crucial role in election management, they urged every leader to strive to strengthen the party within their respective areas. The leaders expressed the view that party workers are the party's greatest strength and that victory can be achieved through their cooperation.

- 'Guru Parirakshana Deeksha' (Protest to Safeguard Teachers) begins in Tadepalli
- Demand for CBI inquiry into DSC-2025 irregularities
- YCP demands resignation of Minister Nara Lokesh
- Appeal for TET exemption for in-service teachers
- Pledge to continue the fight until justice is served to the unemployed

Tadepalli, September 5 : A 'Guru Parirakshana Deeksha' has commenced at the YSR Congress Party's central office in Tadepalli, alleging irregularities in the DSC-2025 recruitment process. Party MLAs participated in this protest, which was organized on the occasion of Teachers' Day. Through this protest, which is scheduled to continue until the evening, they demanded a comprehensive inquiry into the alleged irregularities within the DSC recruitment process. YCP leaders demanded a CBI investigation into the irregularities surrounding DSC-2025 and called for the resignation of Education Minister Nara Lokesh, holding him accountable for the issue. They also urged the state government to decide on granting TET exemptions to in-service teachers and to persuade the central government to agree to this measure. Leaders participating in the protest demanded the immediate release of outstanding dues owed to teachers by the government. They affirmed that the YCP would continue its struggle until justice is secured for the unemployed aspirants who have been adversely affected by the DSC process. They urged the government to respond to the issues faced by teachers and the unemployed across the state.

Three More Mega DSCs by 2029: Minister Lokesh

- Goal to make the education system the best in the country
- Transparently completed the recruitment of 16,000 teacher posts
- University faculty appointments to be completed by April next year
- Enrollment of 1.10 lakh students in government schools

Vijayawada, September 5: Minister Nara Lokesh stated that the government is working with sincerity to position Andhra Pradesh's education system as the best in the country. He spoke at the 'Best Teacher Awards' ceremony held in Vijayawada on Saturday to mark Teachers' Day. He noted that immediately after taking the oath of office, Chief Minister Chandrababu Naidu signed the file for the 'Mega DSC' (Teacher Recruitment Test) first, and the process of filling 16,000 teacher posts was completed transparently in fulfillment of that promise. He emphasized that the government accords top priority to the development of the education sector. Minister Lokesh announced that three more Mega DSCs would be conducted by 2029 to fill vacancies in government schools. He recalled that under Chandrababu's leadership, nearly two lakh teachers had been recruited through 14 DSCs in the past. Asserting that "CBN means DSC and DSC means CBN," he reiterated the government's commitment to teacher recruitment. He made it clear that the government would continue to move forward with educational reforms, regardless of any criticism. Lokesh revealed that the government has initiated measures to fill university faculty positions that had remained vacant for decades.

Accelerating Rural Drinking Water Security: Renovation of 340 Filter Beds

Inkollu Mandal, Bapatla District

Halvi Village, Kowthalam Mandal, Kurnool District

-- Statewide measures initiated under the directives of Deputy Chief Minister Pawan Kalyan

- Renovation of drinking water schemes in 370 villages at a cost of ₹35 crore
- Supply of quality drinking water to 25 lakh people
- Works worth ₹26,000 crore under Jal Jeevan Mission and Amarajeevi

Jaladhara
Amaravati, September 5: With the aim of providing clean and safe drinking water to rural populations, Deputy Chief Minister and Minister for Panchayat Raj, Rural Development, and Rural Water Supply, Pawan Kalyan, has launched a comprehensive action plan. As part of special measures to strengthen rural drinking water systems across the state, 340 damaged filter beds within protected drinking water schemes across approximately 370 villages have been renovated at a cost of ₹35 crore. This initiative is ensuring the supply of quality drinking water to around 25 lakh people. To further strengthen rural drinking water infrastructure, works worth approximately ₹26,000 crore are currently underway under the Jal Jeevan Mission and Amarajeevi Jaladhara schemes. Plans have been formulated to meet the drinking water needs of 1.21 crore people over the next 30 years through Mega Water Grid projects, which are being implemented at a cost of ₹7,910 crore across the Chittoor, Prakasam, Palnadu, and Godavari districts. Additionally, Rs. 9,355 crore has been sanctioned for another ten multi-village schemes. The government initiated the construction of single-village water schemes at a cost of Rs. 1,814 crore, targeting 3,000 villages facing acute water scarcity.

Complaint Lodged with SP Regarding Violation of Court Orders

Puttaparthi: Narasimhamurthy, a follower of the Gooluru Mahasamsthanam, stated that he has lodged a complaint with the District Superintendent of Police (SP) alleging violations of court orders concerning the Jangama Matham and the Veerabhadraswamy Temple in Nidimamidi village—institutions with a history spanning approximately 750 years. Speaking to reporters at Sai Aramam on Saturday, he noted that in the case O.S. 88/2025 filed before the Puttaparthi Junior Civil Judge Court, orders were issued on March 18, 2026, directing the maintenance of the status quo and prohibiting any obstruction to devotees. However, he alleged that the temple is being opened using duplicate keys to conduct rituals. He also requested action regarding the alleged illegal inclusion of private individuals' names in the land records (Adangal) for the Matham's lands in Nidimamidi and Kotlapalli villages. He stated that he had urged the SP to halt the programs scheduled for the 6th and 7th of this month and mentioned that 21 supporting documents were attached to the complaint. Ratnakumar, Secretary of the Nidimamidi Jagadguru Matham, and Venkatappa, a follower of the Gooluru Mahasamsthanam, among others, participated in the event.

Visakhapatnam District Devotees' Pilgrimage to Prasanthi Nilayam Concludes Amidst Devotional Fervor

Puttaparthi: The three-day pilgrimage to Puttaparthi by devotees from Visakhapatnam district concluded on Saturday amidst an atmosphere of deep devotion. Over 2,000 devotees participated in the journey, held from September 3 to 5, seeking darshan and blessings in the divine presence of Sri Sathya Sai Baba. To mark the conclusion of the pilgrimage, Bala Vikas students presented a spiritual musical program titled 'Sai Prema Kusumalu' at the Sai Kulwant Hall. The venue resonated with the chanting of the Vedas by the devotees from Visakha-patnam district. Addressing the gathering at the Poornachandra Auditorium, Sri R.J. Rathnakar, Managing Trustee of the Sri Sathya Sai Central Trust, urged every pilgrim visiting Prasanthi Nilayam to return home with a positive transformation. He emphasized that practicing Swami's message of love and service in one's life and sharing it with society constitutes true service. His message inspired the devotees, who then began their return journey from Puttaparthi, resolved to put the values of love, service, sacrifice, and humanity into practice.

Samskruthi College Cash Theft Case Solved

Interstate gang's prime suspect arrested; Rs 4.50 lakh recovered Puttaparthi: Police have solved the case involving the theft of Rs 17.45 lakh in cash from the accounts department of Samskruthi College at Brahmanapalli, within the limits of the Puttaparthi Urban Police Station. Alex Manohar Pawar, alias Murali (28)—the prime suspect belonging to an interstate gang of thieves—was arrested. Police recovered Rs 4.50 lakh in cash, a wristwatch, a Realme mobile phone, a Jio SIM card, and a Safari bag from his possession. Police stated that the culprits entered the college from the rear side on the night of July 23-24, broke open a cupboard, and stole Rs 17,45,450. A case was registered, and an investigation was launched using technical evidence. As part of this process, the prime suspect was arrested on the night of September 4 at Mamillakunta Cross. The investigation revealed that the accused had been systematically targeting educational institutions for thefts. It was found that they committed crimes using methods such as scouting locations via Google Maps, observing the coverage areas of CCTV cameras, and using gloves and monkey caps. Two other suspects in the case—Kajuram, alias Akash (23), and Bedi, alias Ajay Chauhan (20)—are currently absconding. A search operation involving three special police teams is underway to locate them. Puttaparthi Urban CI Yuvaraju, along with personnel from the Cyber Wing, CCS, and various police stations, played a pivotal role in cracking the case; the District SP commended them for their efforts. The police advised educational institutions to deposit large amounts of cash in banks immediately rather than keeping it on their premises and to install CCTV cameras and alarm systems.

Teachers' Day Celebrations in Sri Sathya Sai District

Awards Presented to 54 Best Teachers

Puttaparthi: A district-level Teachers' Day celebration was held grandly under the aegis of the Sri Sathya Sai District Education Department to mark the birth anniversary of former President Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan. District Collector Shyam Prasad, MLC Bhumireddy Rambhupal Reddy, and former Minister Palle Raghunatha Reddy participated in the event held at Mangalakara Educational Institutions in Jagarajupalli. Speaking on the occasion, the Collector emphasized the pivotal role teachers play in shaping students' lives. He urged them to mold students into exemplary future citizens of India, inspired by the ideals of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan. MLC Bhumireddy Rambhupal Reddy stated that the state government accords high priority to the education sector and is conducting transparent DSC recruitments to create employment opportunities for the youth. He noted that teachers bear the responsibility of fostering good values alongside academic talent in students. Former Minister Palle Raghunatha Reddy highlighted the government's support for students through initiatives such as 'Thalliki Vandanam' and the 'Dokka Seethamma Mid-Day Meal Scheme.' He urged that students be provided with value-based education in addition to the standard curriculum. 54 Best Teachers Honoured Awards were presented to 54 outstanding teachers from various schools across the district who demonstrated exceptional talent in teaching. They were felicitated in a grand manner with shawls and mementoes. Regional Joint Director (RJD) K. Samuel, District Educational Officer (DEO) G. Krishnappa, education department officials, public representatives, teachers, and alliance leaders, among others, participated in the event.

the teachers, he urged them to play a pivotal role in the progress of Telangana's education sector. The Chief Minister called upon all teachers to rededicate themselves to making Telan-gana's education system a model for the rest of India. He urged them to show the same care and attention to students in schools as they do to their own children at home. He remarked that teachers taking to the streets to protest is not a good sign for the government or the state. He as-sured teachers and lecturers that they would face no diffi-culties regarding the Pay Re-vision Commission (PRC), increments, or other service-re-lated matters.Criticizing the pre-vious government for allowing the education system to deterio-rate, the Chief Minister stated that the current people's gov-ernment had successfully com-pleted teacher transfers without controversy. He explained that issues arising from GO 317 had been resolved and long-pending promotions had been granted. He mentioned that foreign study tours were organized to provide teachers with international ex-purview of the Skill University. He announced the introduction of a system comprising two years of theoretical education in polytechnic colleges followed by a third year of training in corpo-rate organizations. He clarified that measures are being taken to ensure students receive a stip-end during their internships and that there would be no changes to second-year engi-neering admissions.The Chief munication skills, spanning from the nursery level to higher edu-cation. He commended the teachers, attributing the record of over 80,000 additional admis-sions in government schools over the past two years to their dedicated efforts. The Chief Min-ister called upon all teachers to work in collaboration with the government to establish Telan-gana as a role model for the country in the education sector.

Goal: Resolving Public Issues

Chennur, September 5 ;State Minister Gaddam Vivek Venkataswamy stated that his goal is to directly understand the public's issues and take measures to resolve them. On Saturday, he opened and inspected the grievance box set up for the public at the Chennur MLA camp office. He thoroughly examined the representations and complaints submitted by people from various areas and decided to bring the relevant issues to the attention of the concerned officials. The Minister reviewed complaints regarding drinking water, roads, electricity, welfare schemes, and land-related matters. He assured that each issue would be examined individually and that he would consult with officials from the respective departments to issue instructions for appropriate action.The Minister expressed happiness that people were bringing their issues directly to his attention. He stated that, as a public representative, it is his responsibility to remain accessible to the people at all times. He affirmed his commitment to understanding public grievances and finding solutions as quickly as possible. The Minister noted that the grievance box provides an easy way for the public to convey their concerns, adding that even those unable to visit the office in person could submit their representations in writing. He opined that this mechanism serves as a bridge between the public and the administrative machinery.Vivek Venkataswamy stated that every complaint received from the public would be examined responsibly. He asserted that there would be no room for negligence in resolving issues and that the resolution process would be expedited through coordination with officials from the concerned departments. He remarked that resolving public grievances is the true benchmark of people-centric governance. The Minister emphasized a commitment to working continuously to uphold the public's trust. He noted that special attention is being paid to the development of the Chennur constituency as well as the resolution of the people's personal and social issues. He urged the government machinery to work with greater responsibility to provide better services to the public.

Congress Playing with Students' Future

- Harish Rao criticizes the Congress government
- Demands immediate release of fee reimbursement arrears
- Demands the cancellation of GO 97
- Harish Rao vows to fight for students' issues in the Assembly

Siddipet, September 5 : Former Minister and BRS Legislature Party Deputy Leader Harish Rao criticized the Congress government, stating that its 1,000-day tenure has been marked by complete failure. Participating in a protest organized by students and youth at the Siddipet Old Bus Stand, he remarked that the future of thousands of students is in jeopardy due to the non-payment of fee reimbursement arrears. He highlighted that SC, ST, and BC students, in particular, are facing severe hardships. Harish Rao alleged that the government has not released even a single rupee towards fee reimbursement over the past three years. He noted that the management of Sri Krupa Pharmacy College in Gajwel is withholding certificates because fees have not been paid, putting several students at risk of losing higher education opportunities. He recalled that even during challenging times like the COVID-19 pandemic, the BRS government used to pay approximately ₹2,000 crore annually for fee reimbursements.Harish Rao stated that over the last decade, the BRS government spent more than ₹20,000 crore on fee reimbursements, helping poor students become engineers and doctors. He stated that the BRS government had cleared the arrears left pending by the previous Congress administration. However, he criticized the current Revanth Reddy government ernment had pledged to provide two lakh jobs within its first year in office, the actual number of jobs provided was far lower. He for playing with the lives of students. He alleged that approximately 300 private degree colleges across the state have shut down due to the non-release of fee reimbursements, with five degree colleges in Siddipet alone ceasing operations. He criticized the government for failing to provide uniforms to students in government schools, even though months have passed since the academic year began. Alleging a move towards the privatization of polytechnic education, he demanded the immediate withdrawal of GO 97, which has caused difficulties for students.Harish Rao also criticized the Congress government for failing to fulfill its promises regarding employment. He pointed out that while the gov-alleged that various promises made to women, the elderly, and the youth also remained unfulfilled. He demanded that Chief Minister Revanth Reddy resign, taking moral responsibility for the failure to implement the 'Six Guarantees.' Harish Rao affirmed that the BRS would always stand by students and the youth. He stated that the party would question the government on the issues of fee reimbursement arrears and the withdrawal of GO 97 during the Assembly session commencing on the 7th of this month. He warned that the filing of police cases against protesting students would not be tolerated. They stated that the struggle to protect students' rights would continue.

Mass Protest Over '22-A' Lands

- MP Etela Rajender participates in BJP's mass protest at Indira Park
- Demand to remove lands from the '22-A' list
- Sharp criticism of the state government
- Vow to continue the fight in support of affected individual Hyderabad, September 5 : Malkajgiri MP Etela Rajender participated in a mass protest (Maha Deeksha) organized by the BJP at Indira Park to support those affected by the inclusion of their lands in the '22-A' prohibited list. Speaking on the occasion, he alleged that lakhs of farmers and poor people across the state are facing severe hardships due to the '22-A' list. He questioned who gave the government the authority to place people's lands on the prohibited list. Etela Rajender stated that the people of the Malkajgiri parliamentary constituency are the worst affected by this issue. He noted that affected individuals voluntarily arranged buses to travel to the protest site to highlight the severity of the problem. He emphasized that this is not a minor issue, pointing out that the lands of thousands of farmers in the Narsapur area alone have been included in this list.Alleging that the government is acting unjustly regarding the homes and lands of the poor, Etela mentioned that people in areas such as Quthbullapur, Phanigiri Colony, Gajulararamaram, and Asmathpet are facing difficulties. He stated that there is widespread anxiety among the public as lands cultivated for generations and properties inhabited for decades have been placed on the prohibited list. Etela Rajender warned officials to function in accordance with the law. He stated that action would inevitably be taken against those responsible for decisions that infringe upon the rights of the people. He noted that failure to protect public assets would lead to legal consequences in the future.Etela alleged that the inclusion of properties in the '22-A' prohibited list was not an ill-conceived move but a deliberate tactic to exert pressure on the public. He criticized the fact that land-related issues had already escalated due to the Dharani system, and now, the '22-A' issue was causing further hardship to the people. He affirmed that the BJP would continue to fight to safeguard the land rights of farmers and the poor. Etela Rajender clarified that their primary demand was not merely the abolition of the '22-A' list, but the immediate removal of people's lands from the prohibited category. He vowed to continue the struggle until justice is secured for the affected individuals. He warned that the BJP would intensify its agitation at all levels to protect the lands and homes of the people.

mentation. He urged all departments to work together towards people-centric development.

Protest against Congress with outstanding cards

Aija, September 5, Alleging that the Congress government has failed to implement the promises made during the elections, Alampur MLA Vijayu held a massive protest rally at the Aija mandal centre. A large number of people participated in this program which was organized by students, youth and BRS party ranks. He criticized the government for not fulfilling its election promises even after 1000 days of coming to power. Speaking on the occasion, MLA Vijayudu said that the Congress government, which got people's support with six guarantees and 420 guarantees, has completely failed to implement them. He alleged that the promises given to the youth in key aspects like unemployment compensation, job creation and release of job calendar have not yet been fulfilled. They claimed that the government had dashed the hopes of lakhs of unemployed youth. Vijayudu said that specially designed 'Baaki cards' have been distributed to explain the government's failures to the public. He said that people have been made aware about the election promises and their implementation status. He said that people need to question the government that has not kept its promise to the people. The MLA accused the government of not paying attention to the problems faced by students and youth. He criticized that there is a delay in filling up jobs and creating employment opportunities. He demanded that the government should take immediate steps keeping in mind the future of the youth. During the protest rally, party leaders and students raised slogans and expressed their concern over the policies of the government. They asked the government to work more sincerely in solving public problems. He opined that the implementation of the promises given is crucial for the development of the state.

Municipal Chairman CM Suresh, Vice Chairman Mala Narsimhulu,

BRS senior leaders Sundar Raju, Nagardoddi Venkatramulu, BRS, BRSV leaders, activists and students participated in large numbers. After the rally, they distributed the due cards to the people and gave an explanation es. The state would be met with a strong, democratic response.

Police Bridge the Gap with the Public through 'Palle Nidra'

- Police officials staying overnight in villages
- SP instructs personnel to perform duties in a way that earns public trust
- Special focus on law and order ahead of elections
- Awareness created regarding cybercrimes and women's safety

Srikakulam, September 5: The Srikakulam district police department is conducting the 'Palle Nidra' (Village Night-Stay) program with the aim of bringing the police force closer to the public. Under the directives of District SP K.V. Maheswara Reddy (IPS), police officials are touring villages and interacting closely with the residents. The SP emphasized that every police officer should discharge their duties in a manner that fosters public confidence. He stated that the primary objective of the 'Palle Nidra' program is to directly understand the issues faced by rural communities and identify solutions. He noted that staying overnight in villages and holding meetings with residents strengthens the bond between the police and the public. In view of the upcoming local body elections, the SP directed police officials to take proactive measures to ensure law and order remains undisturbed in the villages. He advised them to remain vigilant to prevent any untoward incidents during the election period and instructed them to maintain special surveillance on sensitive areas. On Friday night, police officials visited several villages in the district, stayed there, and interacted with the locals. Awareness programs were conducted on topics such as the installation of CCTV cameras, women's safety, prevention of cyber fraud, drug control, and road safety. Officials urged the public to remain vigilant to avoid falling victim to cybercrimes. They advised caution regarding phone calls, messages, and online links from unknown sources. Awareness was also raised about the services available for women's safety. Police stated that the 'Palle Nidra' (Village Night-stay) program is receiving a positive response from villagers. They noted that this initiative helps in directly understanding and resolving the public's issues. Officials affirmed that such programs would continue in the future, with measures taken to bring the police closer to the people.

Hyderabad, September 5 : Telangana has secured another major project involving significant investment. Hypervolt, a TCS-affiliated entity, is set to establish a massive AI data center campus in Hyderabad with a capacity of 1 gigawatt. It was announced that Hypervolt and its partner companies would invest up to ₹70,000 crore in this project, which will cover an area of over 250 acres. The project will provide essential computing infrastructure to international organizations, hyperscalers, and world-class companies that utilize cutting-edge Artificial Intelligence (AI) technology. Once fully operational, the project is expected to generate approximately 7,000 direct and indirect jobs. Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy met with representatives associated with the project and described it as a historic milestone not only for Telangana but for the entire country. "This project demonstrates that Hyderabad is currently at the forefront of the global AI revolution. This decade belongs to artificial intelligence technology. As AI models and computing capabilities evolve into public infrastructure, having them based in Telangana offers the state a distinct advantage," the Chief Minister stated. Speaking on the occasion, IT and Industries Minister Duddilla Sridhar Babu remarked that Telangana has once again proven itself to be an investment-friendly state. He noted that the state secured this project thanks to its ability to make rapid decisions tailored to the needs of global organizations. He added that the foundation for this agreement was laid during discussions held earlier this year at the Davos summit between Chief Minister Revanth Reddy and Tata Sons Chairman N. Chandrasekaran. TCS CEO K. Krithivasan stated that Hyderabad's talent pool, infrastructure, and business-friendly environment make it an ideal location for serving global clients. He expressed his gratitude to the state government for its support. Deepesh Nanda, MD and CEO of Hypervolt, mentioned that the center would be built with state-of-the-art facilities to meet future AI requirements. Constructed in adherence to green energy and water conservation principles, the completed campus is set to become one of the country's largest and most advanced AI infrastructure hubs. This development will further strengthen Hyderabad and Telangana as key centers in the nation's AI and digital infrastructure landscape.

Congress Public Governance Completes 1,000 Days; Celebrations Held in Lalapet..

Tarnaka, Trainet News, September : Following the directions of TPCC and DCC leaders, Secunderabad in-charge and contested MLA Adam Santhosh Kumar, Congress leaders and workers in Lalapet celebrated the completion of 1,000 days of the Congress government with great enthusiasm. The celebrations were held under the leadership of TPCC Secretary Amarnath Goud, with a large number of party leaders and workers participating enthusiastically. The celebrations included bursting firecrackers, cutting a cake and exchanging greetings. Sweets were also distributed among the public. Speaking on the occasion, Amarnath Goud said that since coming to power, the Congress government has been giving priority to the welfare of the poor and weaker sections and has been implementing several welfare programmes. He stated that the government led by Chief Minister Revanth Reddy is moving forward with public welfare as its primary objective. Along with fulfilling the promises made to the people during the elections one by one, the government has also undertaken several additional welfare initiatives that were not specifically mentioned in the election manifesto, he said. Amarnath Goud alleged that leaders of the BRS were criticizing the Congress government’s 1,000-day rule only to divert public attention from the impact of the debts incurred and wrong decisions taken by the previous BRS government. He made it clear that the Congress would respond to criticism not through words but through the implementation of welfare schemes and development works. He further said that public confidence in the Congress government is growing stronger. Congress leaders and workers, including Anirudh, Shekhar, Baba Ashok, Raju, Prasad, Shiva Sudhakar, Shailender and Anwar, participated in the programme.

TRINET NEWS, September 05:Mohtur Mandal BJP leaders strongly criticized the Congress government, alleging that its decision has become a major curse for landowners. They said that imposing restrictions under Section 22-A and preventing people from selling their own lands was highly unfair.They questioned the Congress government, asking whether it could be called “people’s governance” when citizens were unable to sell their own land even during times of financial need, or whether it was merely imposing restrictions on people’s rights.The BJP leaders alleged that instead of freeing people’s lands from restrictions and resolving the issue, the government was making the problem even more complicated. They demanded that the 22-A issue be resolved immediately and that full rights be restored to landowners.They warned that if the government failed to act, the BJP would intensify its agitation on behalf of the affected landowners.BJP District Executive Committee member Enugu Jitender Reddy, Mohtkur Mandal BJP president Gudhe Madhusudan Yadav, BJP SC Morcha district secretary Kompelli Ganesh, Panakabanda village Deputy Sarpanch Radharapu Malle-sham, Mandal party vice-presidents Lelela Balanarasimha and Gunti Satish, Mandal party general secretary Pailla Satish, Kisan Morcha Mandal president Bheemudi Tirumala Reddy, and BJP leaders Nallapogula Venkanna, Kadamanchi Saidulu, Mukkamula Ganesh, Lothukunta Dharma, Radharapu Chendu and others participated in the programme.

MLA Mutha Gopal’s Birthday Celebrated Among Unemployed Students

Hyderabad, TRINET NEWS, September 5:Telangana Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy expressed confidence that the Congress would win all 117 seats in the next Assembly elections if the number of constituencies is increased, and would secure 97 seats even if there is no increase.He asserted that the Congress would remain in power in Telangana for ten years, from 2024 to 2034, and described it as his challenge to both the BRS and BJP.The Chief Minister warned that he would not allow the “BRS plant” to sprout in any election. “I will come to Sircilla by the end of this month and hoist the tricolour there. Next month, I will launch a political offensive in Siddipet. Be ready,” he challenged.Chief Minister Revanth Reddy toured the Nakrekal Assembly constituency in Nalgonda district on Saturday. During the visit, he unveiled plaques for 12 development works worth ₹345 crore and inaugurated a 100-bed government hospital in Nakrekal. He also inspected various departments in the hospital.Ministers N. Uttam Kumar Reddy, Komatireddy Venkat Reddy and Ponguleti Srinivas Reddy, MPs Raghuvver Reddy and Kiran Kumar Reddy, TPCC president Mahesh Kumar Goud and Nakrekal MLA Vemula Veeresham participated in the programme.Addressing the gathering later, Chief Minister Revanth Reddy launched a sharp attack on the previous BRS government.“Your Farm Loan Waiver Was Barely Enough to Pay the Interest!”“Some people are unable to digest the welfare schemes implemented by the Congress government during its 1,000 days in office and are now going from village to village. Compare the ten years of BRS rule with our 1,000 days of governance,” Revanth Reddy said.He alleged that the farm loan waiver provided by the previous government was barely enough to cover the interest burden.“KCR stepped down after deceiving farmers with promises of providing the final instalment of Rythu Bandhu. We have paid ₹36,000 crore to farmers under Rythu Bharosa in 32 months. We completed payments relating to paddy procurement, Rythu Bharosa and farm loan waiver within 30 months,” he said.The Chief Minister claimed that nearly one crore women were saving up to ₹10,000 every month because of various welfare measures introduced by the Congress government.“As long as the Congress government continues, women will have free travel in RTC buses under Indiramma Rajyam. We have made women partners in all our welfare programmes with the aim of making them financially empowered,” he said.He questioned whether KCR had ever provided free bus travel to women or implemented similar welfare programmes.“KCR is confined to his farmhouse. His curses cannot bring down this government. If you had issued job notifications, why did you fail to complete recruitment during your tenure? The Congress government filled 72,000 jobs in the very first year; something no other government in the country has achieved,” Revanth Reddy asserted.“They Are Roaming Around Like Crows to Loot Villages”“When KCR became Chief Minister, he made Harish Rao and K.T. Rama Rao ministers. After I became Chief Minister, I gave opportunities to many people as ministers, MPs and MLCs,” Revanth Reddy said.He accused the BRS leadership of trying to return to power for personal gain.“They are roaming around villages like crows, looking for opportunities to loot again. After seeing our governance, the brother-in-law duo is crying uncontrollably,” he remarked.Responding to criticism about his educational qualifications, Revanth Reddy said, “They say I am not educated, but I have dignity and values. That is why you are still able to remain in this position.”He further targeted K.T. Rama Rao over family issues, alleging that he had mistreated his own sister when she came to tie a Rakhi.“You studied in Guntur. What did you do for Telangana?” he asked.Revath Reddy alleged that differences arose within the KCR family over the alleged wealth accumulated during BRS rule.“Those who cannot take care of the women in their own family are claiming that they will look after the welfare of women in society. How can people believe them?” he questioned.The Chief Minister said the Congress government was ready to discuss any issue in the Assembly.“You should come to the Assembly. If you have the courage, both father and son should attend the Assembly and debate all issues with us,” he challenged.Revath Reddy also alleged that KCR had remained at his farmhouse without attending Assembly sessions while continuing to draw public money as salary and allowances
